

What's Under Your Bush

5 – 1

If you thought “What’s In Your Wallet” was cute and catchy – try checking out What’s Under Your Bush. This guy can kick a Titleist out of the rough faster than Roger Clemens can say ‘growth hormone’ and faster than Ashley Alexandra Dupre and spit out $4,300.00 . This Buckeye-bred (that’s probably where the confusion started) has turned in top performances in all sorts of strange places....like would you believe Hollywood (not California, but Florida), and Beavercreek (not Brokeback Mountain....but Ohio), and all over Miami (not Florida, but Oxford). When the horses head for home, check What’s Under Your Bush, he might just show up anywhere.
