

My First Holy Communion

8 -1

I I will always remember my First Holy Communion. m My Dad says it's on the day after the holy horse race. As for m me, I get to wear a new white dress today and tomorrow. a And Dad said that if he cashes a big ticket on the k Kentucky Derby, we can go out and buy a bunch of dresses. Now i I'm all for being in a state of grace and all that stuff, but for n now, I'm all for finishing in the money. g God understands.
m My mom is getting all dressed up today too, and if y you're wondering what Ross is wearing, don't be f frightened. He might look i identically like a Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtle.....probably r Raphael or Leonardo. Zaco and Jessica are coming too and when we s sing "My Old Kentucky Home" – you know that song about the lady with t tears in her eyes, or something like that, keep a c close eye
o on my Dad because there m might be tears in his eyes too. There's m music and dancing at our party and people u under the tent. And n nothing makes up happier, than being with our friends.
i I pray each night when I go to bed, o Our Father, Hail Mary, Amen.
n Next, Dad says "God Bless the Commonwealth" – that's how our prayers end.
