

Big Old 51 and Holding

51 – 1

Seasoned equinophile returns to Derby Day festivities approaching emeritus status, and was recently quoted as saying “I used to give everything to run track, now I give everything to the track.” In fact this horse track venue veteran has more years on his race card (and on his driver’s license) than Ken Quinn has bets on today’s big event. And speaking of “big” just ask Big Old’s better half what she’s betting on and you just might get a long answer to a “shorts” question.
