

Don't Ask What Happened To Jake

2195 – 1

Some things you're not supposed to know
Sometimes you have to guess
Sometimes what they don't tell you
Should be left alone at best

Don't go asking questions
You might make a big mistake
Don't stick your nose where you're not supposed
You might end up like Jake

Ask the cat about curiosity
Stop or you'll go blind
It's not meant as animosity
Just caution from behind

Put your best foot forward
Watch out for that rake
He thought he knew what he was doing
But guess what happened to Jake

Life can be a mystery
And mystery is found in books
It'll all go down in history
Just the way it looks

When I found out what happened
I prayed for heaven's sake
If opportunity comes a knockin'
Don't ask what happened to Jake
