

Dr. Day Drehmer

Rx - 1

Buckeye-based recovering rheumatologist makes inaugural entry to 1st Saturday of May activities after rigorous off season training and campaigning at GOP headquarters in Right-of-Centerville, Ohio. Local party policy planners predict a conservative approach.....he'll probably even park on the right side of the street. And one thing that's for sure is this guy has the C.V. (that's Could be a Vitae) to back it up. Here's a few highlights:

- B.A. , 1977, Eisenhower Bible College and Lean-To-The-Right Conditioning School
- Medical School, 1982, Limbaugh Learning and Medical Arts and Parts Center
- Fellowship, 1985, Funny Bones Healing Through Hilarity Center for Semi-Excellence
- Pastor Emeritus of the First Church for Pious Political Personification and Right Wing Revelation
- Founder of the 'I Don't Hate Democrats/We Need More Targets/NRA Sanctioning and Ethics Propagation Group
- 1969 Grammy Winner as Vocalist of the Year with the hit "I'd Rather Be Dead Than A Dem Like Ted" as a member of the group The Chaps From Chappaquiddick
- Platinum Level Lifetime Member of the Future Funny Farmers of America and Citizens for Prevention of Nitrous Oxide Abuse
- Peer Review Publication Advisor for "The Constitution", "Our Daily Constitution", and "My Daily Constitution"
- What's playing on his CD Player: He doesn't have one.
- What's playing on his 8-Track Player: "King Of The Road" (Roger Miller)
- What's playing on his Victrola: "Sing-a-long With Mitch (McConnell)"
- Favorite TV Show: (Tie) The Rifleman and Gunsmoke

And oh, by the way, did he ever tell you that he used to sell clove cigarettes and incense at the corner of Haight-Asbury? I didn't think so. But.....he is left handed....so you never know. When they're off and running, house handicappers expect Dr. Day Drehmer to lead the parade as the candidates are polling to the finish.
