

ProVKen

18 - 1

If this Penn-bred clepticon gets out of the gate (and steps up to the mic) he just might steal the whole show (and your Pro V's while he's at it). Past Derby Day doers may know about Ken's starched hair, Tommy Sinatra Camo Camp body-shirts and personal lubricant (with a twist of lime) preferences, but what you may not know about is good 'ol Kenny's clepto-snatcho/nice head/Mr. Macho/I'll have another Belvedere and some fresh towels please/I like doing it/I haven't gone blind yet/it doesn't make you a bad person tendencies. Whew, that was a lot to spit out. Just remember, your balls are never out of bounds when ProVKen is around.
