

What's My Name

3785 – 1

Here's an experienced stallion that really knows how to make it around the circle.....he actually owns most of the circle, so we suppose he can do whatever he wants there. Top trainer, Lovely Lori, helps to keep him in rare Raymonde racing form and on a diet that could make Erlanger as famous as Milwaukee. He probably remembers his first adult training beverage, but what has us wondering is if he remembers his first name.....or at least his first name tag? But he definitely follows the Raymonde racers motto.....“the quality goes in before the name goes on”.....and local hops handicappers know there's no shortage of quality here.
