

Kentucky In His Mind

1980 – 1

In his mind he's gone to Kentucky
He can see the sunshine
Across the Mason-Dixon Line
What the hell was on his mind
He must've swallowed some buckeyes
Yes he can see Kentucky in his mind

Kate, she is a lovely one
They jumped the broomstick one morning
Now the two dance as one
But Tony, a Kentucky boy, we're wondering
Have you gone to Ohio and lost your mind

There ain't no doubt in no one's mind
That KY is the promised land
Not a sweeter place to find
But hey Tony, what's up, we're wondering
Have you gone to Ohio or lost your mind

Late last night at the Saddle Club
Tony heard the Commonwealth calling
My Old Kentucky Home, sun shine bright
Signs that say KY, he's going, he's going
He's gone to Kentucky in his mind

With a holy host of Colonels standing around him
You'd think he'd left and gone to the moon
With A Spirit That Will Not Die - forever
You must forgive him
If he's gone to Ohio and lost his mind
